

LEADERS' FORUM

2024 PROGRAMME

- 8:45am Registrations, tea and coffee
- 9:15am Mihi, karakia and welcome
- 9:30am Panel Discussion
Panellists include Vanessa Sorenson, Microsoft
The panel of business leaders will discuss AI in your co-operative business - and what organisations can do to get ready for the AI wave.
- 10:15am Keynote
Carrie Hurihanganui, CEO Auckland Airport
Hear from Auckland Airport Chief Executive Carrie Hurihanganui on the airport's story of resilience, rebuilding global connections out of the pandemic; navigating the 2023 Auckland floods; and getting underway with the most important infrastructure build in the airport's history.
- 11:00am Morning tea
- 11:30am Presentation
Glen Willoughby, CEO Nilo, previously Advisor IT Digital Technology at NASA Jet Propulsion Laboratory
NASA JPL stories – Defining strategy and leading critical initiatives involving high levels of innovation and emerging technologies (and avoiding falling on your face!)
- 12:30pm Lunch
- 1:15pm Address
Andrea Scown, CEO Mitre10
Technology implementation at scale in a co-operative, and how to bring your stakeholders along with you from design to roll out.
- 2:00pm Address
Simon Tucker, Director of Global Sustainability, Stakeholder Affairs and Trade Fonterra
Learn how Fonterra engaged with farmer-owners on setting an on-farm emissions reduction target that both creates value with customers and plays a significant part in helping New Zealand achieve its climate goals.
- 2:45pm Afternoon tea
- 3:15pm Interview
Dr Ants Roberts, Chief Scientific Officer Ravensdown
A pioneer of precision agriculture, Ants has made significant contributions to the industry to help drive smarter farming.
- 4:00pm Panel Discussion
Panellists including BusinessNZ CEO, Kirk Hope
A lively panel discussion and debate on a 100 day report card for the coalition Government – from a business perspective.
- 4:45pm Wrap up
Cooperative Business NZ
- 5:00–6:30pm Networking with canapés and drinks